These two words don’t mean the same thing!

Parliament is the legislative (law-making) part of government, made up of the Monarch, the Senate and the House of Commons. For example, Parliament passed a bill.

Government has two meanings:

- Generally, government refers to the management (governing) of a country.
- Specifically, the Government consists of the Prime Minister, the Cabinet and the federal departments they manage.
How to Use Our Country, Our Parliament

This book introduces you to Canada’s Parliament. By the time you finish this book, you will understand:

- how parliamentary democracy works in Canada
- how people get appointed or elected to Parliament
- what Senators and MPs do in Parliament
- how decisions made in Parliament affect you and your community

Parliament is a big place! To help you find your way around, a team of narrators have volunteered to help out.

What Do the Icons Mean?
