

Who am I?

Name: _____

Date: _____

Many people are involved in the daily work of Parliament. Draw a line to the person that best fits each description. You can also write the description number next to each person.

1. I am appointed by the Governor General on the advice of the Prime Minister. I facilitate debates and business in the Upper Chamber.

2. I ask parliamentarians tough questions and report on the work of Parliament to Canadians. My job is to hold Parliament and parliamentarians accountable.

3. I represent the Monarch in Canada. I give Royal Assent to bills after they are passed by the Senate and House of Commons. I call elections and open Parliament.

4. I am appointed by the Governor General on the advice of the Prime Minister to represent a region of the country. Besides proposing and passing bills, I meet regularly with Canadians to hear their views on bills and national issues.

5. I am (usually) the leader of the party with the most seats in the House of Commons. My party helps set the agenda for the issues and bills discussed at Parliament.

6. I am elected by Canadians to represent a constituency (or riding). I propose, debate and vote on bills.

7. I am elected by my colleagues in the Lower Chamber to make sure that rules and procedure are followed. During debates, all questions are directed to me.

8. I am Canada's head of state. I am also the head of state of 15 other countries.
